

STUDY: ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE & STUDIES

DePaul Sponsored Quarter- or Year-Long Programs Of interest to environmental Science and Studies Students

DePaul has many study abroad programs with courses of general interest to Environmental Science and Studies students. Most, however, do not have courses that can be applied to an ENV major. The following programs do include courses that can be applied to an ENV major. To see the full set of courses for these programs, go to the listing of courses by program at Course Equivalencies & LS Domain Assignments for DePaul Study Abroad Programs or go to the program links in the table below.
